

2016 LUIS ALICEA CELEBRITY GOLF CLASSIC

ELEV8 Sports Institute (formerly known as the Bucky Dent Baseball School) is challenging student athletes to master their game at South Florida's international sports training facility. Long-time Delray Beach resident and CEO of Vantage Capital Group, Don Uderitz purchased the school in April 2005. In 2011, following Uderitz's vision, ELEV8 Sports Institute created an innovative outline to build an elite multi-sport athletic training company. This multi-sport training center operates on approximately 50 acres of premium sports venues in the "Most Fun Small Town" Delray Beach, Florida.

The ELEV8 Baseball division is commanded by former Major League Baseball player, Luis Alicea. Alicea is a two-time World Series Champion with the Boston Red Sox and the St. Louis Cardinals. Alicea knows what it takes to be the best and is a great communicator when working with the next generation of ball players. The exceptional coaching staff consists of five former professional ball players dedicated to the philosophy of training excellence and player development. The ELEV8 Baseball division offers training for players between the ages of 12 and 19 years old as at a 9 month academy for boarding and day students.

ELEV8 Prep Academy is a private school program at ELEV8 Sports Institute. E8 Prep is headed by Lisa Paolo, Principal and Mother of five. Students complete their high school college prep curriculum through an individualized and customized program. Students excel in their grades and SAT scores gaining 90-250 points per section on their college examinations. In the last two years, graduates of ELEV8 have had 100% of the students obtain college scholarships to play sports at the next level. The class of 2014 had 38% of the student athletes attend D1 Universities, 62% attend D2, JUCO, or NAIA colleges, and 12% were drafted to the MLB. They also earned 1.3 Million Dollars in Scholarships.
